COMING TO PLEAD HERCAUSE

THE PRINCESS KAIULANI SAILS FOR NEW-YORK.

SHE WILL APPEAL TO MR. CLEVELAND-THE

QUEEN'S COURSE NOT APPROVED BY HER NIECE.

London, Feb. 22.-The Princess Kalulani, helress to the throne of Hawaii, salled to-day for New-York on the steamer Teutonic. The Princess is accompanied by Theophilus Davies, his wife and daughter, and by Miss Whartoff. Mr. Davies consented to permit the United Press correspondent to have an inter view with the Princess at his home, called Sundown, Hesketh Park, Southport, where she has been living. Mr. Davies is the principal British merchant con nected with the Hawalian Islands trade. He received the correspondent, and eagerly asked for the latest news from America. He said that he had had no to his recent request to the commissioners of the Provisional Government of Hawaii to delay the negotiations until he could bring the Princess Kaiulani to the United States to plead for her rights. feared, he said, that the commissioners were hurrying to complete the deal before her arrival. confident that if Americans could see the Princess, who was a simple Christian girl, her throne would

Mr. Davies said that he knew Mr. Thurston and th other commissioners intimately. He had lived Hawaii himself for years. He and his wife were friends of the parents of Kaiulani, and when Mr. Thurston sent her to England they consented to become her guardians. The Princess spent her holldays at Sundown as one of the family, and was treated like a daughter. The Princess Kaiulani is tall and slender, and with more thoughtful, deliberate air than might be expected in a school-girl. She is a brunette, with the eyes of a gazelle, and features that suggest just suspicion of Kanaka origin. She was somewhat ner yous when interviewed. She said that she had nothing to add to the appeal which she had addressed to the American people, and she expressed her thanks that her appeal had been forwarded to the American news papers. She had, she said, no definite plans, but could be gulded by her guardian, Mr. Davies. proposed to spend two days in New-York, and then to visit Boston, where she would remain until after the inauguration of President Cleveland. Then she would Washington and would probably make a personal appeal to Mr. Cleveland. The Princess added that she had no friends in America except the friends of Mr. She timidly expressed a hope that she migh gain the sympathy of the American people.

"I cannot see," she continued, in a modest, hesttone, "why I should be summarily deprived o recognized legal rights, for no fault of mine, and with being even notified to appear in defence of m rights. I ask only that right of appearance which American law gives to everybody before he or she is deprived of a right. I know absolutely nothing about this affair, except what has been in the newspapers No notification has been received by me regarding it." "What do you think of President Harrison's message urging annexation ?" asked the correspondent. "I prefer not to express an opinion on the subject,

In answer to other questions, the Princess said that she was entirely opposed to the policy of the Queen, especially in regard to the bills which the Queen is reported to have signed, and which gave rise to The Princess said that she did not wan Hawaii to be under a protectorate of any sort. She wished it to be independent. She believes that America nd Hawali should be warm friends. She had never seen an English official, and did not believe that England would interfere in Hawaiian affairs. asked if she would return to England after her presen visit to America, the Princess answered:
"Yes, if I am successful. I shall be of age nex

President of the timed States, and the American hawaii and assume the position to which I am entitled."

The Princess said that she favored the proposition made by Mr. Davies to the Provisional Government of Hawaii, that a Regency should be appointed for three years, with S. B. Dole, the head of the Provisional Government, as President, the Princess to be crowned Queen of Hawaii at the termination of the Regency. Here the Princess excused herself on the Regency. Here the Princess and in a pathetic tone, and with sudden spirit:

"I want to do all I can for my people, and to be an honest and true leader to them. I simply want to do my duty to beloved Hawaii."

The Princess shook hands warmly with the correspondent, and thanked him for the sympathy shown with her cause, and asked him to convey her thanks to the American press for the hearing given her. The Princess and her friends were then photographed in a group in the conservatory.

The party started on the noon train to day, alighted at Bootle and drove to the steamship dock, where they boarded the Teutonic. Although the name of the

HE SAYS THE WILD STORY IS UNTRUE. E. C. MACFARLANE PUTS NO CREDENCE IN K. J D. KIMBERLY'S TALE.

C. Macfarlane, of Honolulu, who is at the Victoria Hotel, says that the story as told by a man at St. Paul, who gives his name as K. J. D. Kimberly of Honolulu, is romance pure and simple. The tale is to the effect that Germans and Englishmen on th Islands tried to drive away American guards, and that four of the Germans were killed. said by Mr. Kimberly that the attacking party had been armed at the German and English Consulates According to the thrilling story five Americans had also been killed in a street fight. "I feel certain that there is not the slightest founda tion for such a yarn," said Mr. Macfariane yesterday. " in the first place, the German Consul, H. F. Glade is one of the strongest supporters of the Provisiona Government. He is as strongly opposed to the Quee as Mr. Thurston or any of the other commission He is the junior partner of the firm of Hackfeld of Co., sugar planters, who employ a considerable num ber of the German population. It is not likely that anybody opposed to the Provisional Government would furnish arms for the purpose of disturbing his own interests, and it is absurd to say that Glad took a hand in stirring up a row as told by Mr

Mr. Macfarlane says that the feeling in Washington has changed in his favor, and he feels certain, he says, that the Hawalian treaty will not be ratified at the present session of Congress, and that a com mission will be sent to Hawaii to make a full report of the condition of things before final action is taken

SENATOR HISCOCK ON HAWAU. HE DOESN'T THINK THE SENATE WILL YOTE

ON THE QUESTION THIS SESSION.

Senator Frank Hiscock, who was at the Fifth Avenu Hotel yesterday, said he did not believe the Senate would take a vote this session on the Hawaiian ques "The time now is too short before the close of the session," said the Senator, "and as the matter has to be debated, the question will hardly reach a vote. No fault, however, can be found with the treaty. It to a gem, and if it is satisfactory to the Hawaiian Com missioners it certainly should meet with the approva of the American people. There is no reason why the matter should be delayed, and there has not been any undue haste in the matter. We understand the exact condition of things on the Islands, and as there was no occasion for delay the treaty was not drawn up too soon. The sooner the matter is settled the better it will be for all concerned, but as it takes time to debate an important question similar to the Hawaiian matter, and as there is not sufficient time for that ebate, the Hawalians will have to be content to wait. If the matter could be settled before March 1, o course the commissioners would be better satisfied but I am afraid that the people of the island will have to walt.

"A number of selfish Democrats, and I might also say a few Republicans, who hold prominent public positions, have cried out against annexation, but the union is bound to take place. A protectorate would be doing things by halves, and the only real solution to the affair is annexation."

A CALL ON THE PRESIDENT FOR INFORMATION.

Washington, Feb. 22.-Representative Springer, of Illinois, introduced to-day in the House a resolution that the President of the United States be requested to furnish the House with any information he have showing the amount of the postal savings bank deposits and the debt of Hawaii, the rate of interest they may bear, when they will be due and payable and what was the market value of the bended debt of that Government prior to the establishment of th Provisional Government; also any information in show-ing the amount of sugar annually produced in Hawaii, and the amount of mency which will be required to he bounty upon Hawaiian sugar in case of an-ion, and the probable amount of other obligations this Government will incur as a necessary consequence of such annexation.

STILL DEBATING THE TREATY

SENATOR MORGAN'S SPEECH

NO PROGRESS TOWARD A VOTE-APPROPRIATION BILLS PRESSING FOR CONSIDERATION-MR. THURSTON ON KAIULAND'S INTERVIEW.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Washington, Feb. 22.-The Senate spent the greater part of this afternoon in secret session listening to a speech by Mr. Morgan in favor of the ratification of the Hawaiian treaty. The Alabama Senator is to start to-morrow, with Secretary Foster, for Paris, to be present at the sessions of the Behring Sea Loard of Arbitration, and before leaving Washington was anxious to impress upon the Senate his View of the importance of an immediate ratification of the treat of annexation. The speech was an admirably thorough and exhaustive one, every phase of the scheme of Mr. Mortan spoke for two hours without interrup tion, and an additional half hour was taken by him in answering inquiries from other Senators about the effects of the treaty. No progress was made, however, toward a limitation of debate on the treaty or toward securing a vote. The friends of ratification see that the only chance of reaching a vote lies in insisting on executive sessions each day, and it may be that by persistence and determination they may force the opposition to drop their filibustering tactics and con to a free expression of the Senate's judgment it the treaty. To urge the continued considera about the treaty. tion of the convention will, of course, delay and embarrass the appropriation bills, and it will become priations-the friends or enemies of the treaty. The Sundry Civil bill was sent to conferen day, but there remain yet to be considered the Diplo matic and Consular, Naval, Pension, Agriculture Military Academy, Legislative, Executive and Judicial. Indian and General Deficiency bills. Only eight days are left of the session, so that the crush fo precedence will be extraordinary, and the treaty can be kept under consideration only by a surprising display of disinterestedness and accommodation on th

question, in a few days, as to which side car

better afford to risk the failure of the annual appro

part of the managers of the appropriation bills. Secretary Foster transmitted to-day to the Com mittee on Foreign Relations the formal proposition made to him by Paul Neumann, the agent of Queen. Mr. Neumann's proposition is that the ex Oneen be restored to power, or, if this is impracticable or inadvisable and annexation of the islands is neces sary, that the ex-Queen receive a pension commer surate with her dignity and losses. No particular amount of money is suggested by Mr. Neumann, bu it was learned to-day that he declared he would not be satisfied with less than $80,000 a year. Mr. Thurston, the chairman of the Hawnitan Con mission, commented this evening on the news of Princess Kalulani's sailing for this country as follows "The announcement that Kalulani, ex-heir apparen o the Hawalian throne, has left England to come t Washington to claim her throne, opens a new phase of the Hawaiian question. The situation, to say the east, is peculiar. In the first place the existing Hawatian Government, with President Dole at its head, is in full possession, and has been officially re-ognized by all the nations of the world. The monarch as been abolished. Queen Liliuokelani and all other laiming title or consideration under the nonarchy have no more legal rights than have th arious other ex-kings, queens, princes, princesse and collateral claimants to thrones, of which there i a liberal supply scattered all over the globe. This loes not appear to be appreciated by Liliuokalani an her niece Kalulani. The former has sent her at-orney to Washington to make a claim to be restored o her throne, although the attorney has made i ecret of the fact that his expectations are limited certain amount of coin and that he is authorized by ds principal to waive all her claims, whatever the

"There now appears upon the field a new claiman who talks about 'my throne,' etc. This new opponen of the 'devine right of kings' does not seem to ap preciate that her claim is based upon the that the Hawaiian monarchy still exists and that, if it did exist, the rightful occupant of the throne is still the Queen. She proposed not only to ignor the fact that the existing, recognized, responsible Government of Hawaii is one in which she has no part, but also to ignore the fact that the ex Queen, if any one, is the rightful claimant to the throne he coolly assumes that the United States did n mean what it said when it recognized the existing Hawailan Government; and further assumes to put the ex-Queen to one side and place the Hawaiia own on her own head, whether or no. The propodrion is a manifest absurdity. he United States should not only withdraw from the position it has already taken, but that, having done so it should overturn the existing Hawaiian Government estore the native monarchy, remove the Queen and place Kalulani upon the throne.

"It is interesting to consider who it is that ask the American people to do all this. She is the daughter of an Englishman; educated in England; a ward under the personal control of Theophilus H. pavies, an Englishman, who for years has been the leading spirit of the anti-American faction in Hono ulu, bitterly hostile even to the proposition to allow he United States a site for a Naval station at Hawa'l With Kalulani on the throne this English faction would have the control of the Government with al that that means. Mr. Davies is already the agen that that means. Mr. Davies is already the agent at Honolulu of the Canadian Pacific Railway, which is now making arrangements to run a line of subsidized steamers to Australia, by way of Honolulu, to be immediately followed by a telegraph cable. With English control of the Government and an easily corruptible Legislature, it will be an easy matter to throw the subsidies now paid by Hawaii to American steam lines and the subsidy now offered to an American cable into the hands of their Canadian aules; and with the additional ability to offer the sugar planters cheap labor from India, it would be out a few years before the whole trend of Island sentiment and association would be away from the inlied States and toward England. It is well to consider that not only the Canadian, but the New-Zealand and Australian governments have protested to their home Government against the proposed annexation of Hawaii. At the present moment it is English-policy to remain quiescent; it certainly has been a most diplomatte move, if the object was to prevent annexation, for nothing would have so united American sentiment as England's open opposition; but there is no guarantee that such will continue to be England's policy, and if the United States neglects the present onnortunity to acquire Hawaii unopposed, it cannot, with any grace or consistency, object to England's interfering to protect the interests of her subtects in Hawaii after they shall have developed under Mr. Daview's and Kadulani's fostering care to such a degree as to give England the moral right so to do." t Honolulu of the Canadian Pacific Rallway, which

MR. NEUMANN WANTS A PROTECTORATE.

Washington, Feb. 22.-Secretary J. W. Foster sen to-day to the chairman of Committee on Foreign Relations for the information of the Senate the statement which Paul Neumann left at the departmen yesterday, and accompanied it with a report of the interview held with the Secretary. From the latter it appears that the object of Mr. Neumann's visit to Washington is to secure the restoration of Queen Liliuokalani to the throne under an American protectorate. He does not advise her restoration unde any other circumstances. If the Congress of the United States shall not deem a protectorate feasible he would then favor annexation, with a liberal allow ance for the Queen and Princess Kalulani, but he strongly objects to the continuance of the present Provisional Government in power.

THE REVOLT AT ALBANY. SENATORS AND ASSEMBLYMEN DISCUSS THE

SITUATION. State Senators and Assemblymen coming to this city from Albany for the purpose of attending the funeral of Senator Edward P. Hagan to-day began to arrive last evening and a number of them were see in the corridors of the principal hotels. The main topic of discussion was the revolt in the Legislature against the Democratic State machine and its probable consequences. The facts that the stand made by the Cleveland Senators had found active backing in Boss McLaughlin's entire Kings County contingent that the Tammany delegation had filed out of machine camp announcing the determination to await instructions from Big Chief nd that the Democratic representatives from Albans Westchester, Queens, Clinton and other counties wer in known sympathy with the plan to defeat the casures altering city charters to serve the tyrannical purposes which actuate the men in contro of the Democratic party in this State, were regarded

"I have nothing whatever to say about Albans ffal:s," Mr. Sheehan declared in a positive way, "and It will be useless to ask me any questions." gard to the vacancy in the Senate caused by the death of Mr. Hagan he said that the Governor would probably issue his writ for a new election without innecessary delay.

"This is my impression," he said, "although have no positive knowledge on the subject." The twenty nor more than forty days after the time of issuing the Governor's proclamation. No partisan legislation can be put through until the vacancy is filled. Pelice Commissioner Martin said yesterda that the election for Mr. Hagan's successor must be held in his old Senate District, the IXth, which is made up of the old XVIth, XVIII, XXth XXIId Assembly Districts.

After the funeral to-day the Lieutenant-Governo will go to Lakewood where his family is Itaying and will remain until Monday.

"Will you see Mr. Cleveland while you are Lakewood!" Mr. Sheehan was asked.
"I can't say really," was the reply. "I think Mr. Cleveland is entitled to some peace and quiet lust now." Senator Derby, who was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel ast evening, said that it was difficult to see how the Democratic leaders could avoid a split that would oring serious consequences to Snapper control. The revolt against the city charter amendment bills strong and well-definded that even after Senato agan's vacancy was filled, which must necessarily ke thirty days at the least, they could not be

AN ENGLISH VIEW OF THE SILVER QUESTION. London, Feb. 23.-" The Standard" in a lender on the silver question in the United States this morning compares President Harrison's attitude with that of Nero fiddling while Rome burned, and suggests fron-ically that the Americans must be proud of their Chief Magistrate. "Anything more hopeless than his inability to grasp the situation," continues "The Standard." " cannot be conceived. It seems that there must be a severe shock in America before the people will show themselves wiser that their rulers and stop the creation of silver certificates masqueraded as money of full value."

REPORTS OF AN INDIAN MASSACRE, AN ENTIRE HUNTING PARTY KILLED TO AVENGE AN INSULT TO A GIRL.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 22.-Stanley Smith, arrived here from Bellacoola a few days ago, brings word that rumors are in circulation in that district of a terrible Indian massacre that took place a few weeks ago on Sorrow Island. Some Rivers Inlet Indians went there to hunt otter, and on the island were some of the Kitkatalas tribe, further north, also The story is that & Rivers Inlet man molested a Kitkatalas girl. Her tribe avenged the insuit by killing the offender. A general fight en-sued, and the Rivers Inlet men were vanquished. All were killed with the exception of three chiefs. who were spared because of their rank. These chiefs were imprisoned in a hut. The victorious Indians held a pow-wow, and it was decided that if the Rivers Inlet chiefs were allowed to return their tribesmer would avenge themselves, so it was decided to act on the maxim, "dead men tell no tales." They were therefore shot to death.

The story was told to Smith by some Indians, and he also heard it mentioned by several of the crew of the steamer Coquitalam, which had just returned from a fishing cruise in the locality.

Sorrow Island is distant from any trading ports, so it is probable that the news of the massacre will not become generally known for several weeks. The Indian agent at Alert Bay has been informed of the matter, and he is making an investigation.

SELECTIONS FROM THE MAIL

THEY WANT CORONERS TO BE PHYSICIAN.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: The committee on legislation of the Medical Society of the State of New-York have obse a bill is before the Legislature which sims to place the Coroner's office in the hands of the med fession. They have no hesitation in saying that the fession. They have no nestation in saying that the society which they represent is warmly in favor at this principle. It is undoubtedly believed by the physicians and surgeons of this State that the duties of coroners, so far as ascertaining the nature of the interpretability countries. of coroners, so far as ascertaining of coroners, so far as ascertaining disease or injury causing death is concerned, should disease or injury causing death is concerned, should disease or injury causing death in coroners. the community will be promoted. Without inde any particular bill in all its details which may at the any particular bill in all its details which may at the present time be before the Legislature, this committee feels warranted in urging the Legislature to put a law which will, in the State of New-York, as in the State of Massachusetts, make the office of coroner and to be filled only by a competent physician. The committee also believes that a sufficient salary one of not less than $5,000 in great cities, and fine $1,000 to $2,000 in the country and smaller form must be paid in order to secure competent models service.

The co-operation of the press of this State is example to the competent models of the press of this State is example.

THOSE TURNIP CERTIFICATES. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: What has been done about those tu tificates which the Government was asked to issue on turnips? Turnips were 50 cents a bushel then and now they are only 15, and if they were issued there must be a heavy loss. I protest against the certificates musq be a nearly loss. I protest against the certificate ever being paid. As the Government has admitted and acted on the principle of purchasing all the product of a business, I could see no good reason why the turnips might not be bought too. If they were bought there must be some way of getting to them found.

CONCERNING LONG WORDS. To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Probably the longest legitimate word in the English language (it was not included among the eight given in The Tribune the other day) is "disestablishmentarianism." This was used by seveni English and Irish newspapers at the time of the disestablishment of the Irish Church, about 1871, and is said to have found its way into the House of Com-

THE PRONUNCIATION OF "SACRIFICE."

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: Last night I marked a young lady in a prise speaking contest for pronouncing sacrifice with son "c" at the end. Webster says "fiz" for both non and verb; and in "Principles of Pronunciation," pargraph 65, that dictionary says, "c has the sound d z in the words sacrifice, sice, suffice and discern. Ent "The Century Dictionary," I find this morning, marks sacrifice "fis or fiz," sice and suffice soft, and leaves only discern absolutely with the sound of a On what ground is this change made?

THE APPOINTMENT OF JUDGE GRESHAM. To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Why do the Democrats "rage and imagine a vain thing"! Why all this "walling and gnashing of teeth" 1 Mr. Cleveland is a true Bourbon, and he is simply true to the shibboleth of Democracy, vir., "To the victors belong the spells." I do not see why the leaders of the party find fault with the appointment of Judge Gresham. It is in perfect as cord with the purest postulates of Democracy. Mr. Clevland knows that the appointment as the members of his Cabinet of such men as Judge Gresham is merely rewarding them for services rendered. They know they could not have elected their man withe out the aid of disaffected or disappointed Republicans, and now when Mr. Cleveland honestly and fearlessly puts their doctrine into practice they sit down on their "hind legs and howl." It would be well if they would hold their pence long enough to poder the Arabic proverb: "If I am master and thou art master, who shall drive the assess" or, "They who complain that Grantham steeple stands awry will not set a straighter by it." AN OLD-LINE WHIG. Elizabeth, N. J., Feb. 16, 1893. They know they could not have elected their man with

A TRIBUTE TO CHARLES F. CHICKERING.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I want to thank you for your editorial to-day on the case of the late Charles F. Chickering, and I would also like to record my humble but very sincere belief in Mr. Chickering as a Christian and a gentle man. He was a friend to the poor and the oppressed, and did many kind acts which are not yet forgotten by the various recipients thereof. Mr. Chickering was a man wholly incapable of a mean action of any sort, and was generous and high-midsed to a fault.
